Shen Flindell

The concept for Sangeet Mela 2014 came firstly from the great Indian classical music conferences like Dover Lane and Sankat Mochan, and also from the annual all-night Sangeet Melas I have joined in Japan. These kinds of events are a focal point for the community of performers and listeners to come together and celebrate Indian classical culture in a convivial atmosphere conducive to bringing out the best in the artists. It is my sincere hope that this can become a successful annual event in Brisbane, bringing great musicians and dancers from around Australia and overseas to collaborate with local artists, inspiring young artists to immerse themselves in riyaz, and giving happiness to the audience and sponsors who make such events possible. I welcome your feedback on how to make Sangeet Mela 2015 even better.

Sangeet Premi Club President

Yousuf Alikhan

One of the aims of Sangeet Premi Club Inc is to promote, support and sponsor local, inter-state and international practitioners of Indian Music and to provide a platform to showcase their skills. We are delighted that the inauguration of Sangeet Mela will go a long way in fulfilling our objective. We are extremely excited to add Sangeet Mela to our annual schedule of musical events.

Brisbane has a wealth of Indian classical music talent which deserves a proper platform to develop and prosper. In particular we are keen to foster young talent, and hope that the Sangeet Premi Rising Star Awards will give encouragement to our young classical artists to continue to learn and practise their art and develop into world class artists. We look forward to these young artists presenting Indian classical music and dance at future Sangeet Mela events and other cultural events throughout the year.

We welcome the connoisseurs of Indian classical music to a spectacular display of dance and music and thank them for their support and sponsorship. We also thank our illustrious artists for devoting their time for the inaugural Sangeet Mela and we hope that with support of the audience and the artists Sangeet Mela grows into a premier event on Australian Indian Classical Music calendar.

Putting together an event on this scale on a shoe string budget requires foresight, patience and organisational skills. We are grateful and thankful to our member and Festival Director, Shen Flindell for putting together the first day-long Indian classical music event which brings together well known local, inter-state and international artists.
